To locate accelerant source, slowly scan areas of interest

Collector Cone

Turn Arson Scanner ON by rotating the control switch clockwise and allow several minutes for warm up. Adjust sensitivity up until a slow beep rate occurs. Insert scanner into top of Collector Cone and place over suspect sample. If a hydrocarbon is present, a series of beep tones in synchronism with the indicator light (red LED) will occur. The beep rate becomes faster with more volatile or higher gas concentrations.